2	116323	Dear Chairman PEMRA, It is brought into your kind notice that a Good Morning Show at ARY network "Good Morning Pakistan" hosted by nida yasir, is extremely working against the national interest of pakistan. She not only plays the Indian content and music, but also she used to refer to Indian movies in Pakistani morning show which are broadcast in National TV of pakistan. We all know that telecasting Indian content is extremely prohibited and banned in Pakistan. India always works on anti-Pakistan propaganda and never misses any opportunity to discredit Pakistan. In recent past, when Newzealand cricket team visited pakistan and about to start that ODI match in Rawalpindi, an received by Mrs. Martin Guptil, which was identified and indian lobby and indian agenda to derail that match and Newzealand team fly back to their country. we lost hell of a money, and yet Miss. NIDA YASIR used to refer to Indian content and Indian music in her show. I request your esteemed office to take strict actions against her and her so called vulgar morning show and banned her show on immediate basis. Your prompt action in this regard shall be highly appreciated. -- Thanking indeed Regards	ARY Digital

11	116338	Complaint againt Sang-e-Mah Dear PEMRA, I would like to complain about a TV drama currently being aired on HUM TV (TV and their Youtube channel) on Sunday's called "Sang-e-Mah". In particular, I would like to report episode 2 aired on 16 January 2022 (https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Si2E7we0jE4). The drama is apparently set up in a modern age Pakhtoon society and is based around a topic called "Ghag". I belong to a Pashtoon family and having grown up in the Pashtoon society, I have never come across this term. I have asked my other Pakhtoon friends from different regions such as Peshawar, Mardan, Charsada and Swat and none of them are aware of what Ghag is. According to the drama, "Ghag" is a tradition where a man fires three shots (from a gun) in front of his crush's house to claim her (without her consent). I did some research on the subject, and found that Ghag was practiced in FATA and some surrounding areas in the past. However, the government of Pakistan and KP has banned (http://www.af.org.pk/Acts_Fed_Provincial/KP_Bill%20_Acts_since%202002/KP%202013/Elimination%20of%20Custom%20of%20Ghag%20Act.%202013.pdf) the act through a legislation in 2013. The problem is that the drama shows that Ghag is very common and mainstream today and totally misrepresents the Pakhtoon society today (like me and my friends are in late 20s and we even didn't know what Ghag is). After the episode aired on 16th January many of my friends from other regions in Pakistan told me it's sick that we have concepts such as Ghag. Other family and friends have reported similar experiences. We (Pashtuns) were even called primitive and what-not in a whatsapp group chat for having this outdated custom mainstreamed (because of this drama) whereas in reality it's not the case. Also, the same episode shows a Jirga punishing a man with 100 or more lashes for performing Ghag. Please tell me where on earth Jirgas today has the power of punishing someone - and that too with lashes in today's Pakistan? Maybe in Taliban's time in Swat it happened when the govt. had no rid there. Does the drama wants to convey that Pakistani govt. and law has no rid in KP in today's Pakistan? In today's Pakistan, Jirgas are only meant to resolve household issues and not punish people (contrary to what is shown in the drama). Therefore, this drama is hugely misrepresenting today's Pakhtoon society. What messages are we giving by airing such outdated and false concepts as being mainstream today? Note that these dramas are being watched world wide through Youtube. We should be showing progressive stories to bring different cultures and the whole nation on par. At least PEMRA should make sure that dramas and TV are not perpetuating false information or totally misleading information. The drama is really disturbing me and my Pashtoon friends and family mentally for showing such a twisted image of Pashtoons in today's Pakistan and as a citizen of Pakistan, I hope PEMRA would take some action about it. Best regards, A concerned Pakistani.	HUM TV
